

GAYLAW EDUCATION FUND

2011 SUMMER FELLOWSHIP

The Gaylaw Education Fund, a 501(c)(3) affiliate of Gaylaw, is proud to announce its 2011 Summer Fellowships, which will support law students working at DC-area GLBT legal non-profit organizations. The Fund hopes to encourage law students taking their first steps toward careers tackling our nation's most complex GLBT legal issues.

The Fund will pay up to $1,000 to law students selected to be Gaylaw Education Fund 2011 Summer Fellows.

Qualifications for a Gaylaw Education Fund Summer Fellowship

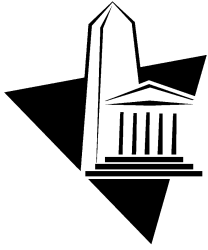

- Enrollment in a U.S. accredited law school
- Summer employment offered by a non-profit legal organization in the Washington DC metropolitan area
- Primary focus of the organization must be on GLBT legal issues or serving GLBT clients
- Employers must be non-profit and non-partisan
- Commitment to work at least 20 hours per week for at least 10 weeks at the organization during the summer
- Applicants must demonstrate commitment to a legal career serving the rights of GLBT clients or advocating for GLBT-specific legal issues
- Total funding that the law student is already receiving for summer employment cannot exceed $5,000 (not including the Gaylaw Education Fund Summer Fellowship).

Application Materials

Students interested in the 2011 Gaylaw Education Fund Summer Fellowship should submit the following materials:

- Application form
- Résumé
- Two references (contact information only; letters of recommendation not required)
- Commitment letter or email from employer, which describes (1) the mission and focus of the organization; (2) the type of work being performed by applicant; (3) the duration and hours of the summer position; and (4) the amount of compensation (if any) being offered for the summer position

Please submit all materials by May 20, 2011 to GaylawEducationFund@gmail.com. Questions about the Fellowship can be sent to the above email address. Applicants will be notified of the Fund's decision in late May or early June.
